In order to make-up excessive days (currently five) missed by teachers due to calamity events, the 2014-15 school year calendar must be modified. To meet this contractual requirement, the calendar is to be modified in the following manner:

- Beginning Thursday, April 9, 2015, the work day for teachers will be extended 15 minutes before the current day and 15 minutes after the current day. This will continue to the final instructional day, Thursday, June 4, 2015. This is the equivalent of four (4) make-up days.
- Friday, June 5, 2015 will be converted from a Teacher Report Day to a professional development day. This day shall be five (5) hours in length.
- Monday, June 8, 2015 will become a Teacher Report Day. This day shall be five (5) hours in length. This is the equivalent of one (1) make-up day.
